

INDEPENDENT, INNOVATIVE, RELIABLE TRANSMISSION MANAGEMENT SERVICES

March 31, 2009

Effective April 1, 2009, any new MAPP Schedule F transmission service requests that include a service window extending beyond 3/31/2011 are subject to invalidation, annulment, or recall at a future date in order to accommodate the implementation of software changes that will automate the validation of the Schedule F sunset date. Effective April 1, 2009, any new MAPP Schedule F transmission service request submitted with a Stop Time after 0:00:00 4/1/2011 is invalid. If you have questions, please contact Transerv Support.
